FOTFER & ADAMS,

August 2d, 1851.

To Professor Holleway - Sta: I desire to be ar testimony to the good effects of Holloway's Phils. For some year's I suffered severely from a pain and tightness in the stomach, which was also accompanied by a shortness of breath, that prevented me trom walking about. I am 84 years of age, and notwithstanding my advanced state of life, there Philb have so relieved me that I am desitous that others should be made acquainted with their virtues. I am now rendered, by their means, comparatucely active, and can take exercise without inconvenivace of pain, which I could not do before.

SCOTTERY.

The canvess is nearly done, and the friends The canvess is hearly code, and the filed and edvecates of General Scott have greatly overdone the matter. It is characteristic of the whig party to idolize their leaders, and disgust all men of sense and taste, by servile adulation.

Not content, however, to invent a fabulous life of Scott—perverting history, and pilfering say that the democratic majority in that State figures down to 5 or 6,000, with the prospect of the jaurels of the living and the dead to deck the brow of Scott-the whigs have managed to trot him round the country and show off his person and his eloquence. The common sense of the country would say that they had made a sorry exhibition of it. In short his speeches have been a laughable compound of vanity, silliness and absudity unmatched by anything extant in the way of speech making.

Still, the worse the better, by whig authority. Men of talent and taste themselves prostitute their judgment tefore the country, by their shameful adulation of those outpourings of egctism and folly, these wretched burlesques on oratory. Translated on Main street.

I dreamed that her favoring glances (ell
On a well-dressed beau at her side,
And I could not tell why the langhing belle
Ilad refused to become my bride.

But a single glance at my rival'a coat
Told me there is y the strength of the game;
And I said, if the tailor's in town who can do it,
I'll bave one exactly the same.
Then I dreamed that I searched the town all o'er
For the gem that would win her beart,
I'll I found mysell standing in front of the store
Where clothing is fashioned by art.
And then I remembered that this was the place
Where the Coat of my rival was made,
And, entering in, right before my face
Lay a broad cloth exactly the shade.
The coat was sent home, and lika Casar I sped—
I came, and I saw, and I won;
For she amilingly said, when I asked her to wed,
"What an elegant cost you have oe."
Three days from that time—perhaps it was more—
I induced her to after her mame.
And I still hay my coats at the very same store,
And she loves me as ever the same.

PIANO-FORTES-TO THE PUBLIC.

G. W. RRAINARD & CO., 117 Fourth st., Mosart Halt. N. B. We pay no commission to teachers for their aid, or recommend, in selling to the parents or guardians of their papits, or to amateur performers for disparaging other make of instruments and praising ours to thair friends and acquisintances. But we rely expirely upon the merit of our Pitnes and their well known reputation and intrinsic value, when compared with those of other make, together with the judgment of Mr. G. W. Brainard (a performar) in selecting our Planos Portes. To those who have so often asked us why some of the professors and amateur performers and teachers, often, and uniformity, speak against Chickering's Planos, the above hint will unfold a mystery. We are satisfied that when the public fully understand this commission on Planos, and that some (not all) of our teachers and amateur performers will harter away the confidence reposed in them for a commission varying from $10 to $20, they will be careful to employ those only to select their instruments who will have an eye to the quality and value of the Plano-Forte, as well as to the ancount of the commission.
